

Participant: FAQs Regarding PRIDE Illinois

1. If I need to make up a class prior to July 1 and the start of PRIDE Illinois, can I make up the session that I missed in the corresponding PRIDE Illinois class? Yes, you may. The competencies, the foundation of each session, have remained the same in the new curriculum as they have always been, session by session.
2. If I begin PRIDE Illinois in the classroom, can I take the Supplemental Classes online? Yes, you may take the Supplemental Classes online. Let your licensing worker know and you will be signed up to take the class On-Demand in the VTC.
3. Can I make up a missed in-class session online? Yes you can if you and your licensing worker feel that it would be a good choice for you. There is a tool called the "Online Learning Self-Assessment" that you can complete and review with your licensing worker to see if the Online work is a good fit for you.
4. What should I do if I do not complete my sessions in the time frame allowed? These cases are being reviewed on an individual basis to see what would be best for you. You may be given a time extension or you may be assigned to an Online Make-up PRIDE class. Your online trainer should contact you regarding the missed deadline and work with you to find the best solution for completing the work.
5. Can I complete more than the two PRIDE Online sessions in a week? No, the progress is limited to 2 sessions per week.
6. Must I complete an Online Learning Assessment to take Supplemental Classes On-Demand? No, the On-Demand classes do not require the assessment.
7. Who do I contact if I experience technical difficulty while take the Online Training? Contact your online trainer. They will help you fill out a Trouble Shooting Form and submit it to the best person to assist with the particular difficulty that you are having.
